

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A KEEN sense of obligation, and grateful appreciation is acknowledged to Walter Pliny Fuller, of St. Petersburg, Florida for his service in preparing this volume on the life and worth of our brother, Bascom Lee Field. They were classmates in college, and comrades in arms. Both are the severest testing grounds of the worth of men, and supply the ideal opportunity for men to learn men. Of Mr. Fuller his own classmates wrote—"He is the premier, composite and versatile genius of the class."

THE FIELD FAMILY.
